Dear Fergie:

First, you threw us props by “keeping it real” in your song “Glamorous.” Now, you have flattered us yet again with the latest shout out to Taco Bell during your Whitehouse Nightclub gig in the Hamptons. There’s no doubt that you are one of Taco Bell’s biggest fans. Now, we are going to do something for you and your fans.

We would like to turn one of our Taco Bell® restaurants over to you. Well, not entirely, but long enough for you and your fans to be fed free Fourthmeals following one of your concerts. Pick any of your remaining tour destinations and if there’s a Taco Bell restaurant in the hood, we’re good to go – it’ll be the ultimate “after after” party. (But give us at least week to prepare for all those extra Fourthmeals!) Boston? We’re there. New York? There. Dublin Ireland? Okay, not there ... yet – but keep shouting out and who knows!

Just let us know your preferred restaurant following an upcoming concert and you and your closest friends will be served free Extreme Cheese and Beef Quesadillas for the next three hours. Consider this our way of humbly saying, We appreciate that you “Think Outside the Bun.”

Please have your people call our people and we’ll work out the details. We look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,
