COMPLAINT

1 Plaintiffs RED, WHITE & CRUE, INC., a California corporation ("RW&C"), and
2 MOTLEY CRUE, INC., a California corporation ("MCI"), (RW&C and MCI are collectively
3 referred to herein as "Motley Crue" or "Plaintiffs") allege against BURT STEIN, an individual
4 ("Stein"), B ENTERTAINMENT, INC., a corporation ("B Entertainment"), GOLD MOUNTAIN
5 ENTERTAINMENT, INC., a corporation ("Gold Mountain"), and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,
6 and each of them (collectively referred to herein as "Defendants"), as follows:

7 A. Introduction

8 1. Motley Crue, a hugely popular rock and roll band with a global following, brings 9 this action for declaratory relief, breach of fiduciary duty, and breach of contract against 10 Defendant Stein, one of the band's former managers, and Gold Mountain and B Entertainment,
11 the corporate entities that are responsible for Stein's actions and benefit from his managerial 12 activities.

13 2. Defendant Stein, on behalf of himself, Gold Mountain and B Entertainment,
14 served as both a manager of Motley Crue and as manager to one of the band's members at all 15 times relevant to this Complaint. As a manager of the band, Stein was paid by Motley Crue for 16 his managerial services and had a fiduciary duty to look out for the best interests of the band.

17 3. Stein and the other defendants agreed in writing that their management agreement
18 would terminate if and when the band entered into a new and different management agreement,
19 and that has occurred. Despite their clear-cut agreement in this regard, Defendants are continuing 20 to demand commissions and taking the position that their agreement is still in effect, when they 21 know it is not.

22 4. Furthermore, Stein, individually and in conjunction with Gold Mountain and B
23 Entertainment, breached their duties and obligations to Motley Crue. Stein used his position as a 24 band manager to attempt to extract money for himself to the detriment of Motley Crue.
25 Additionally, Stein and the other Defendants obstructed the business relationships of the band by 26 promoting their own agenda for their financial gain.

27 B. Parties and Jurisdiction

28 5. Plaintiff Red, White & Crue, Inc. ("RW&C") is, and at all times relevant to this

1 Complaint was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California
2 with its principal place of business in the County of Los Angeles, California.

3 6. Plaintiff Motley Crue, Inc. ("MCI") is, and at all times relevant to this Complaint
4 was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California with its 5 principal place of business in the County of Los Angeles, California.

6 7. Defendant Burt Stein held a dual role, serving as one of Motley Crue's managers
7 and also as manager of one of the band members. He received a commission from Motley Crue
8 for his managerial services to the band.

9 8. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that at all relevant
10 times mentioned herein, Defendant B Entertainment was responsible for the co-management of 11 Motley Crue and the acts of Stein as set forth herein. Stein acted on behalf of B Entertainment
12 while performing his duties as co-manager of Motley Crue. B Entertainment ratified the actions
13 of Stein and accepted the benefits of those actions by receiving commission payments from 14 Plaintiffs for the managerial services provided by Stein.

15 9. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereupon allege, that a unity of interest
16 and ownership exists, and at all times mentioned herein existed, between B Entertainment and 17 Stein and that B Entertainment is, and at all times mentioned herein was, an alter ego of Stein.
18 Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereupon allege that B Entertainment and Stein
19 disregarded corporate formalities, commingled assets and treated one another as alter egos such 20 that the corporate form should be disregarded to avoid an inequitable result in this case.

21 10. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that at all relevant
22 times mentioned herein, Defendant Gold Mountain was responsible for the co-management of 23 Motley Crue and the acts of Stein as set forth herein. Stein acted on behalf of Gold Mountain 24 while performing his duties as co-manager of Motley Crue. Gold Mountain ratified the actions of 25 Stein and accepted the benefits of those actions by receiving commission payments from Motley
26 Crue for the managerial services provided by Stein.

27 11. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereupon allege, that a unity of interest
28 and ownership exists, and at all times mentioned herein existed, between Gold Mountain and

1 Stein and that Gold Mountain is, and at all times mentioned herein was, an alter ego of Stein.

2 Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereupon allege that Gold Mountain and Stein
3 disregarded corporate formalities, commingled assets and treated one another as alter egos such
4 that the corporate form should be disregarded to avoid an inequitable result in this case.

5 12. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that Defendants Does 6 1 through 10, inclusive, are individually and/or jointly liable to Plaintiffs for the wrongs alleged 7 herein. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate or otherwise, of 8 Defendants Does 1 through 10, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs at this time. Accordingly,
9 Plaintiffs sue Defendants Does 1 through 10, inclusive, by fictitious names and will amend this 10 Complaint to allege their true names and capacities after they are ascertained.

11 13. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that except as 12 otherwise alleged herein, each of the Defendants is, and at all times relevant to this Complaint 13 was, the agent, employer, partner, joint venturer, alter ego, affiliate, and/or co-conspirator of the 14 other Defendants and, in doing the things alleged herein, was acting within the course and scope 15 of such positions at the direction of, and/or with the permission, knowledge, consent, and/or 16 ratification of the other Defendant.

17 14. At all times relevant to this Complaint, the conduct giving rise to these claims
18 occurred, in part, in the County of Los Angeles.

19 C. Motley Crue

20 15. Motley Crue is one of the most popular rock and roll bands in the world, having 21 sold millions of albums and performed thousands of concerts in the United States and abroad for 22 more than twenty-five years. MCI and RW&C are the corporate entities that conduct the business
23 of the band Motley Crue. MCI was formed in 1984 as the entity that would own the name Motley
24 Crue and conduct the business of the band Motley Crue. MCI owns and controls (i) all Motley
25 Crue business and assets; (ii) the rights to the Motley Crue name, trademarks and copyrights
26 associated with the band; (iii) famous logos, artwork and marks created and used by the band
27 Motley Crue; and (iv) the right to license and exploit the Motley Crue name. RW&C was formed 28 as the entity that would operate Motley Crue's tours and associated activities.

D. Management of Motley Crue Between Mid-2004 and February 2008

16. Motley Crue was managed by three managers between mid-2004 and February 2008. Stein, on behalf of himself and the other Defendants, was one of these three managers. Each of the band's co-managers also represented one of the individual band members. Each manager was paid a certain commission percentage from Motley Crue's earnings for his managerial services. Each of the band's co-managers, including Stein, Gold Mountain and B Entertainment, was a fiduciary to Motley Crue, and each owed fiduciary duties to Motley Crue, including the duties of loyalty, honesty, good faith and care.

17. Each of the Motley Crue managers was involved in management of the band. Stein, in particular, rendered management services regarding touring, merchandising, album recording and sales, budget, expenses, marketing, and branding of the Motley Crue name. There were frequent meetings and conference calls in which each manager gave his input on any decision under consideration. Each of the managers had a duty in his management position to look out for the best interests of the band.

18. Defendants, along with the other co-managers, received commissions from Motley Crue as compensation for their managerial activities. These commission payments were derived from revenues generated by Motley Crue and were separate from any commissions the co-managers would receive by virtue of their representation of one of the individual band members.

19. On August 7, 2007, Defendants entered into an agreement with Plaintiffs that, among other things, stated that they would continue to be paid a management commission until a different management agreement was reached. Once the band entered into a different management agreement, Defendants' management agreement would terminate, and their management of the band would cease.

E. Defendants Put Their Own Interests Ahead of the Band's

20. After August of 2007, discussions were held between the band and various professionals associated with the band regarding the terms under which Motley Crue would record an album and go on concert tour in 2008. Defendants took part in these discussions as a co-manager of Motley Crue.

1 21. Defendants stalled and obstructed the progress of these discussions. Concerned
2 that a different management agreement for Motley Crue was under consideration, and that their 3 agreement could end, Defendants demanded money and consideration for themselves and 4 threatened to withhold essential services if their demands were not met.

5 22. In late January 2008, Motley Crue informed Defendants that the band was going to 6 meet on February 6, 2008 to discuss Motley Crue activities for 2008. The attendance at the 7 meeting of all band members was requested.

8 23. Stein informed the professionals associated with Motley Crue that the band
9 member he represented individually would not attend the band meeting unless Stein's monetary 10 demands were addressed, and agreed to, before the meeting. By his action, Stein sought to 11 leverage the band for his own pecuniary benefit.

12 24. Plaintiffs later learned that the band member had not refused to participate in the 13 band meeting as Stein had stated. The representation by Stein, on behalf of himself, Gold 14 Mountain and B Entertainment, was false. Stein was putting his own interests ahead of the 15 band's interests.

16 F. Defendants Schedule Conflicting Dates

17 25. Thereafter, the band and its management were in the process of planning the 18 recording of a new album along with North American and international concert tours. In this 19 regard, the band had agreed to make the new album, tours and all Motley Crue business a priority.
20 The band scheduled dates in 2008 for album recording, editing, mixing and mastering, related 21 photo shoots and press conferences, performance rehearsals, promotional events, and the dates of 22 the domestic and international tours that would take place later in the year.

23 26. With knowledge of the Motley Crue schedule, Defendants set up appearances and 24 activities for one of the band members which conflicted with the Motley Crue schedule.
25 Defendants' booking of dates that conflicted with the Motley Crue schedule occurred even after 26 Defendants had been made aware of the conflicts.

27 G. Plaintiffs Enter Into a New Management Agreement

28 27. In 2008, Motley Crue entered into a new and different agreement appointing

1 another management company as the band's exclusive manager. The 2008 agreement is a
2 different agreement, and thus had the effect of terminating the prior agreement between Motley
3 Crue and Defendants.

4 H. Defendants' Further Interference

5 28. In April 2008, Motley Crue announced that it had reached an agreement with a 6 major promoter to headline a large North American tour during summer 2008. The promoter was 7 to be the exclusive provider of all activities related to Motley Crue on the dates that the concerts
8 were scheduled to take place.

9 29. Despite having knowledge of Motley Crue's agreement with the promoter,
10 Defendants began promoting and scheduling events to take place in connection with Motley Crue
11 concerts in the cities where the concerts were scheduled to be held. Defendants used Motley
12 Crue's name and other intellectual property, including use of the tour logo and slogan, in printed 13 forms of advertising in order to promote these events. Defendants took these actions despite the 14 fact that they never asked for, nor received, permission from Motley Crue to advertise these 15 events that do not involve Motley Crue.

16 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Declaratory Relief – Brought by Motley Crue Against All Defendants)

18 30. Motley Crue hereby repeats, realleges, and incorporates by this reference each and 19 every allegation from paragraphs 1 through 29 of this Complaint, as though these paragraphs
20 were set forth in full herein.

21 31. The agreement between Motley Crue, on the one hand, and Defendants, on the 22 other hand, provided that Defendants would continue to receive their commission for 23 management of the band until a different management agreement was reached.

24 32. In 2008, Motley Crue entered into a new and different and exclusive management 25 agreement.

26 33. An actual controversy has arisen and now exists between Motley Crue and 27 Defendants concerning their respective rights and duties.

28 34. Motley Crue requests a judicial determination of the parties' rights and duties as

1 set forth herein. A judicial declaration is necessary and appropriate in order that the parties may 2 ascertain their respective rights, duties and obligations.

3 35. Motley Crue requests a declaration that the management agreement between 4 Motley Crue, on the one hand, and Defendants, on the other hand, has ceased and is terminated;
5 and that Defendants no longer have any right to receive any commissions or other consideration
6 from Motley Crue (including RW&C, MCI, and all band members, entities and management).

7 36. Motley Crue requests a declaration that Defendants' management agreement has 8 been terminated by virtue of Defendants' breaches of duties as set forth herein and because of the 9 different management agreement entered into by the band in 2008.

10 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Breach of Fiduciary Duties – Brought by Motley Crue Against All Defendants)

12 37. Motley Crue hereby repeats, realleges, and incorporates by this reference each and
13 every allegation from paragraphs 1 through 36 of this Complaint, as though these paragraphs
14 were set forth in full herein.

15 38. As managers, Defendants stood in a relationship of confidentiality and trust and 16 owed special duties to the band, including the duties of loyalty, full disclosure, good faith and fair
17 dealing, as well as the duty to be truthful in all of their dealings with the band. Specifically,
18 Defendants owed the duty not to favor their own interests over the interests of Motley Crue and 19 its members and to disclose all material facts related to the management relationship with Motley
20 Crue.

21 39. Motley Crue is informed and believes and upon that basis alleges that, from 22 August 2007 onward, Defendants breached their duties to Motley Crue by engaging in the 23 following misconduct:

- 24 (a) Misrepresenting the position of a band member;
25 (b) Favoring Defendants' own interests over the interests of their fiduciary;
26 (c) Refusing to fulfill their duties to the band until Defendants' financial 27 demands were met.

28 40. As a result of Defendants' breaches of duties as set forth above, Defendants'

1 management agreement is terminated; and further, Motley Crue has suffered damages in excess
2 of the jurisdictional limit of this Court.

3 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

4 (Breach of Contract – Brought by Motley Crue Against All Defendants)

5 41. Motley Crue hereby repeats, realleges, and incorporates by this reference each and
6 every allegation from paragraphs 1 through 40 of this Complaint, as though these paragraphs
7 were set forth in full herein.

8 42. In 2004, Defendants entered into an oral management agreement with Motley
9 Crue.

10 43. In August 2007, Defendants confirmed the management agreement, and their 11 continuing management duties and responsibilities to the band. This confirmation was in writing.

12 44. Motley Crue has performed all conditions, covenants, and promises required on 13 their part to be performed under the terms of the management agreement, except as excused or 14 prevented by Defendants' material breaches.

15 45. Defendants failed to perform their obligations pursuant to the management 16 agreement by failing to act in the best interests of the band, refusing to fulfill their duties and 17 obligations to the band, misrepresenting the status of a band member, falsifying information, 18 hindering the business of the band, obstructing the band's touring and album recording, failing to 19 schedule activities in accordance with the band's calendar, and impeding the band's previously 20 scheduled activities.

21 46. Defendants materially breached the management agreement as set forth above.

22 47. As a result of Defendants' breaches of contract as set forth above, Defendants'
23 management agreement is terminated; and further, Motley Crue has suffered damages in excess
24 of the jurisdictional limit of this Court.

25 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for the following relief:

26 As to the First Cause of Action:

27 1. For a declaration that the management agreement between Motley Crue, on the 28 one hand, and Defendants, on the other hand, has ceased and is terminated; and that Defendants

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

CM-010

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in Item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.
