Dear Miss Prejean,

We were so sorry to hear about your recent departure from the Miss California organization. However, I think we have some news that can turn this situation around. Your reign as Miss California doesn't have to end!

Hustler Video would like to offer you to play the role of Miss California in our new interactive parody film, You're Nailin' Palin. Your scene would feature some hot girl-on-girl action with adult performer Lisa Ann who's portraying the former VP candidate. Don't worry, you'll also have an opportunity to enjoy some opposite sex as well.

Can't wait to hear what you think!
