Subject: Urgent note from BAY

Hey everyone,

Am I missing something? I wonder why I'm at this studio? I've been working a month and a half seven days a week and wonder why I bust my ass for Paramount??

Why? Because you have treated me so well. Paramount is like family. Thank you all for busting your butts and bringing your 'A game' for the release of Transformers. I appreciate all the hard, dedicated work everyone did so far to make this a great success. Tracking like this happens once in a while in our careers so we should all enjoy it!

I finished the movie at 12:17pm today and was on a plane to Japan at 1:23pm.

Thank you,

Michael Bay
