

Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Los Angeles

News Release

CONTACT: Jeff Blodgett @ 323-730-5300, ext. 252, 323-707-1271 cell

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 27, 2007

spcaLA Issues Statement Regarding Britney Spears

Los Angeles –The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Los Angeles (spcaLA) has received written confirmation from a veterinarian that Britney Spears' dog London has received proper medical attention for a leg injury. spcaLA would like to thank Ms. Spears for her cooperation on this matter as well as members of the public for their ongoing concern for the welfare of animals.

spcaLA is a non-profit organization and performs the Cruelty Investigation program as a major part of its mission. This program is run completely by donations from individuals, foundations and corporations. Animal cruelty can be reported anonymously at 1-800-540-SPCA.

Celebrating 130 years, spcaLA is an independent, nonprofit animal welfare organization serving Southern California. There is no national SPCA, parent organization, or umbrella group that provides financial support to spcaLA. Donations run programs and services including Cruelty Investigation, Disaster Animal Response Team, Humane Education, and a variety of shelter services.

###