STATEMENT OF CONDITIONS FROM WHICH YOU SEEK RELIEF

I, the undersigned, duly depose and say that I am the Applicant in this matter and state as follows:

While at work in mid July<sup>at work</sup> Steve bought me a strong drink and then cornered me while coming out of the bathroom with no one in sight trying to persuade me to come to his hotel suite to spend the night. I told my supervisor who told me to "get used to it." And to keep it to myself. He proceeded to call my hotel room until I finally went to see him. After the night he continued to text me on a regular basis with inappropriate things. I tried to get him to stop & told others but he didn't and finally I gave in and agreed to see him a few times after work in parking lots. Someone at work found out and call his house. Then he began to spread word that I was just the office slut and ruining my reputation. ~~he~~ He continued to text me however about getting together ~~with him~~ <sup>on our next</sup> business trip and I begged him to please be honest about what happened with us that he had ~~per-suad~~ <sup>per-suad</sup> me and that I was not this poor character as he had stated. Over the phone he threatened me stating that if I spoke a word of this to ~~her~~ his wife that he would ruin more than just my reputation but could easily get ~~me~~ <sup>me</sup> fired. At that point I told him I cannot continue on like that and if he couldn't come clean to everyone that I would have to tell. I wrote a letter and left it on their doorstep to his wife. I then thought twice about it and asked a young woman to return it for me. ~~She~~ She drove up in my car and he saw the car and immediately tried to ram ~~it~~ into her over and over. He obviously thought I was in the car and now I'm scared when this might go next.
