Re: Notice of Termination of Employment

Dear Jamie:

This is to inform you that your employment with and positions as Chief Executive Officer and Vice Chairperson of Los Angeles Dodgers LLC (the "Organization"), as well as any and all of the positions that you hold (whether as an employee, officer, or director) with the Organization or any entities affiliated with the Organization and Frank McCourt or either of them, including, but not limited to, Los Angeles Dodgers Holding Company LLC, LA Holdco LLC, LA Partners LLC, The McCourt-Broderick Limited Partnership, The McCourt Company, Inc., Dodger Tickets LLC, LA Real Estate LLC, Blue Landco LLC, and Dodger Tickets Manager Corp., are hereby terminated effective immediately. You have already been paid your salary through December 31, 2009.

Because your employment is held at-will, the Organization is not required to have cause to terminate your employment and may do so for any reason or no reason at all. However, your actions, including, but not limited to, your insubordination, non-responsiveness, failure to follow procedures, and inappropriate behavior with regard to a direct subordinate, have made this decision necessary.

Joe Walsh and Leonor Romero will assist you with regard to all transition issues, including scheduling a time and date to gather your personal belongings and to return to the Organization any and all property obtained from or entrusted to you by the Organization, and, if applicable, the laptop issued to you by the Organization. If you have any questions regarding any of such property, please ask either Joe or Leonor.

Please remember that the Los Angeles Dodgers Confidentiality and Press Policy and the confidentiality provisions of the Employee Handbook require you to maintain the confidentiality of all Confidential Information (as defined in the Employee Handbook) that you acquired during your employment with the Organization, and to preserve such Confidential Information for the exclusive benefit of the Organization. The Organization expects that you will abide by all of the terms of the Los Angeles Dodgers Confidentiality and Press Policy and the Employee Handbook, and that you will not disclose or discuss with any third parties any such Confidential Information. If you have any questions about the foregoing, please contact me.

Consistent with the Organization's desire not to distract the players and fans from the post-season games, we will not announce your termination until after the Dodgers' last game of the 2009 Championship Season.

Sincerely,

LOS ANGELES DODGERS LLC
a Delaware limited liability company
