

Velma Warren Brown
vs.
James Brown

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF
RICHMOND COUNTY, GEORGIA

No. D-8803

FINAL JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF TOTAL DIVORCE

The above stated case coming on for a hearing, and it appearing to the Court from the evidence and the record that the defendant has been duly served as required by law and is properly before the Court, and that the Court has jurisdiction of the parties to this libel for divorce.

Now, upon consideration of this case upon the evidence submitted as provided by law, it is the judgment of the Court that a total divorce be granted, that is to say a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, between the parties to the above stated case, upon legal principles.

It is considered, ordered and decreed by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore entered into between the parties to this case, from and after this date, be and is set aside and dissolved as fully and effectually as if no such contract had ever been made or entered into, and Plaintiff and Defendant, formerly husband and wife, in the future shall be held and considered as separate and distinct persons altogether unconnected by any nuptial union or civil contract, whatsoever.

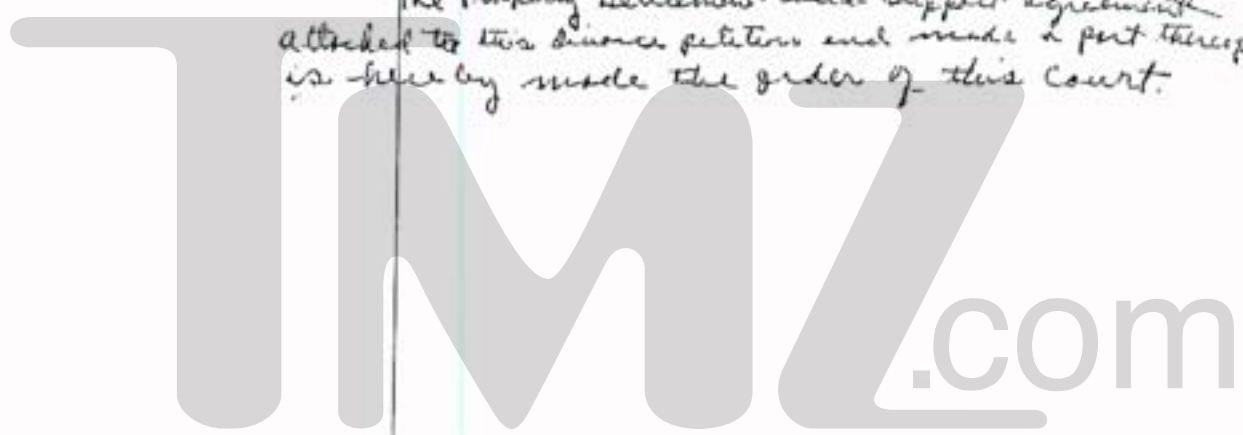

The plaintiff herein shall have the right to remarry and the defendant shall have the right to remarry.

The Property Settlement and Support Agreement attached to this divorce petition and made a part thereof, is hereby made the order of this Court.
