Full Moon Saloon (bar/nightclub), located at 1613 7th Av. E., in full uniformed police capacity. While working, the defendant was ejected from the club by nightclub security for causing a disturbance in the club. The defendant attempted to walk back into the club through the east door, but was escorted away by Officer Angelakopoulos. While doing this, she turned around and tried to push Officer Angelakopoulos away by striking him. She was escorted off the property across the street. While over there, her friend, who refused to be identified, attempted to calm her down. She and the friend began physically fighting on the ground. As I responded to over there, the defendant got up began walking away westbound on the sidewalk. In the area of 1612 7th Av. E., I observed the defendant turn around and start walking back toward our location. While she was walking back, the defendant randomly shoved numerous patrons who were walking on the sidewalk while yelling profanities and screaming. Her violent behavior caused people to stop from walking in that area. Officer Angelakopoulos and I responded there in attempt to take control and place her into custody. While taking her into custody, she pushed both of us and attempted to pull away. The defendant was sat in the backseat of Officer Angelakopoulos's police cruiser. While in there, she vomited in the backseat. The vomit had the smell of alcohol. In addition, the defendant had a strong odor of alcohol emitting from her breath. She was unsteady on her feet and had glassy eyes. Neither officers nor defendant sustained any injuries during the resist. While paramedics were on scene, Officer D. Ayo opened to the cruiser door

to allow paramedics access to the defendant. While the door was open the defendant kicked Officer D. Ayo. Officer D. Ayo placed the defendant back in the cruiser. The defendant was transported to booking by Officer Angelakopoulos charged with Disorderly Intoxication and Resisting Arrest without Violence. See Officer Angelakopoulos's supplement for further information.

On December 01, 2007, I was working an extra duty job with Ofc. C. Cornelius at the night club, Full Moon Saloon located at 1613 7th Ave E. At approximately 0219 hours, we were summoned by the club security staff in reference to an intoxicated female refusing to leave and acting disorderly. Upon arriving to the doors, I observed the defendant, Jessica Sierra, screaming at the security staff and throwing her hands up in the air as if enticing them to fight her. The manager, Justin Hay, advised me that he wanted Ms. Sierra trespassed and told her that she is trespassed from coming back to the club and he asked her to leave. I immediately intervened and asked Ms. Sierra to leave. Ms. Sierra refused to listen to me or Justin even after being asked several times that she needed to vacate the premises. Ms. Sierra had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage emitting from her persons and breath. She was also unsteady on her feet and had glassy appearance to her eyes. These are indicative signs of alcohol impairment and intoxication. After giving her several warnings, I grabbed her by her right arm and attempted to escort her off the property. Ms. Sierra then pulled away from me and started walking back towards the security staff. I then went to grab her a second time and she pulled away and struck me in my abdomen area with an open hand strike. I then advised Ms. Sierra that if she did not leave the property, she would be placed under arrest. Ms. Sierra continued to not comply and started walking towards the doors and security staff again, while yelling and screaming profanities at them. I then pushed her back and once again advised her that she has to leave. She then started walking towards me and I pushed her back again. I then grabbed her by her left arm and escorted her across the street. I then advised her that she is trespassed from Full Moon and if she were to come back, she would be arrested. Ms. Sierra then started walking down the sidewalk across the street yelling and screaming profanities at patrons as they were walking. She then started shoving patrons with both her hands as if instigating them to fight her. Her friend then tried to stop her and she started fighting with her on the ground. Her friend refused to identify herself. At that time, Ofc. Cornelius and I, proceeded to her location and advised her that she was under arrest. Ofc. Cornelius and I then attempted to put handcuffs on her and she shoved us and tried to pull away. She continued to try to defeat us from placing her into handcuff restraints until we were eventually able to place her in custody. She was then placed in the back seat of my patrol vehicle (#642). While in the back of my patrol vehicle she continued her disorderly tirade, screaming and yelling that her aunt is the mayor and that I would be out of a job. She then started yelling, "Suck a Dick" and "Your a dick sucking faggot" several times. Her behavior was very erratic, being that she would be disorderly and argumentative at one moment and then apologetic the next. Several times, she stated that she was sorry and to please let her go and she would leave with no problems. Upon advising her that I could not do that, she would get angry and yell, "Fuck you." While sitting in my back seat, Ms. Sierra began to vomit. I then opened my rear door and allowed her to lean out of the vehicle so that she could finish vomiting without it getting all over her. I then allowed her friend to clean her up with paper towels. At that time, I rolled the back windows down enough so that she could get some fresh air and called for paramedics to evaluate her condition. Upon paramedics looking at her, they advised that her pupils were extremely dilated and that she could possibly be on narcotics as well as being intoxicated. Ms. Sierra told paramedics that she drank approximately 4-5 shots of vodka on an empty stomach and that is why she is vomiting. They stated that her vitals were stable and they medically cleared her to be taken to booking. As I began my transport to central booking, Ms. Sierra began to beg me not to take her to jail and that this would ruin her life. She then told me that she would do anything for me to let her go. She then made the statement, "Please don't take me to jail, I'll suck your dick if you don't take me to jail." I continued my transport and she became irate and disorderly again and began to state, "Fuck you nigger" several times to me. She then told me that by the time she was done with me, everyone is going think that I am the biggest racist.

As we pulled into central booking, she started to vomit again in the back seat of the car. I walked Ms. Sierra into central booking at the Hillsborough County Jail. Upon coming into booking, she continued acting disorderly yelling profanities and racial slurs. Because of her disorderly and disruptive behavior she was placed into a holding cell isolated from other inmates.

Ms. Sierra was issued a trespass warning from Full Moon Saloon by the manager, Justin Hay.

On the above listed date and time I was working in a modified plain clothes capacity and was posted on 7th Ave E for the closing of Ybor City Historical District. I was in plain clothes but was wearing my issued police raid vest with my gun and badge exposed. I was standing in front the Full Moon Saloon night club. The police officer's that were working in an off-duty capacity, in full uniform, and working for the club already had the defendant in custody. She was hand cuffed and in the rear of a marked police vehicle. The vehicle was parked on 7th Ave E. in front of the club.

I observed the defendant to be extremely upset. She was crying and also vomiting. The units that took the defendant into custody called for EMS personnel to medically clear the defendant in order for her to be transported to booking. I was standing by the rear driver's side of the marked police vehicle and the rear door was open while she was receiving medical treatment. At one point she leaned her head out of the vehicle and vomited over her left shoulder getting the substance on the door. The defendant was extremely upset and was very emotional. The defendant would go from crying and being apologetic to shouting vulgarities and challenging Law Enforcement. At one point the defendant became enraged and was shouting at me. She yelled "You fucking bitch, I'll kick your ass. I'll fuck you up, you whore." As she was yelling these obscenities she stood up out of the marked patrol vehicle as if she was going to advance toward me. She was still hand cuffed. I stated to the defendant "You have one chance to sit back down." She then replied "Fuck you, you fucking bitch." At this time I attempted to escort the defendant back into the vehicle by placing my hand on top of her head to guide her down to the seat. The defendant raised her head up and attempted to prevent me from putting her down into the back seat. The defendant had already vomited on the ground and in the rear of the police vehicle. She was being extremely aggressive toward other law enforcement officers and myself. The defendant's aggressive behavior, advances towards me, and her facial expressions made me believe that she was possibly going to spit at me. At that time I targeted the defendant's upper torso area and redirected her back into the rear of the police vehicle. My momentum carried me into the rear of the vehicle with her. I attempted to calm her down to a degree by stating "Calm down, don't pick up another charge." As we went into the back seat, she had her left foot up and it was at my stomach area. I had the right leg pinned under me. As I stood up to get out of the rear of the car she extended her leg and made contact with me. I was not able to determine for sure whether or not the defendant had intentionally struck me and she was subsequently not charged at this time.

The defendant was cleared medically and transported to booking without further incident. This concluded my involvement in this incident.
